SYNCHRONIZED SWIMMING OLYMPIANS DAZZLE WALNUT CREEK
Walnut Creek Aquanuts salute its Olympic, International, and National Champions in an exclusive performance

Walnut Creek, Calif. -- If you missed last year's spectacular synchronized swimming performances in Beijing, this is your chance to see Olympians perform live in Walnut Creek. The local and world-renowned Walnut Creek Aquanuts (WCA) has announced its 22nd Annual Night of Champions. This event, scheduled for Saturday May 30th from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m., will showcase the best of the best, with performances full of synchronized flips and lifts from amazing local and international talent.

Highlights will include performances by current Aquanuts including,

- Kim Probst, Aquanut Head Coach and Team Captain of the 2008 U.S. Olympic Team
- Hiromi Kobayashi, 2008 Japanese Olympian
- Mary and Anna Soto, 2008 Venezuelan National Champions

These champions will be joined by younger Aquanuts who have already won gold in regional competitions. They are sure to entertain and delight the crowd with their dazzling swimsuits and routines.

“The Night of Champions is a special event for the Aquanuts and the City of Walnut Creek. It celebrates the legacy of excellence in athletics and art that the Aquanuts have brought to Walnut Creek for over 40 years. Community members can watch the best of the best in U.S. synchronized swimming at our beautiful pool while enjoying good food and company,” said Kim Probst, WCA head coach and 2008 Olympian.

The Night of Champions takes place at the Clarke Memorial Swim Center, Heather Farm Park, Walnut Creek on Saturday, May 30th. Doors open at 1:30 p.m.

The afternoon will feature appetizers from top local restaurants, a silent auction, and a live auction hosted by Mark Ibanez, KTVU Channel 2 Sports Director. Wine and beer will be available for purchase. Tickets are $25 for general admission and $50 for pool-side seating. Children five and under are free. All proceeds from this event will directly support WCA athletes and coaches as they prepare for upcoming competitions.
